Well, Dad is fat is a different one, with clever insights that are dead on. It starts to decline towards the end, as if Jim is justifying to the world his decision of having five children, and it ends up becoming a "diary", but I enjoyed the first half, let's say, so much that I felt the five stars are well deserved.

Dad Is Fat is another super funny book from comedian Jim Gaffigan! What it's about: Jim Gaffigan talks about family, the complications of having five children, and children in general. I listened to Dad Is Fat on audiobook which is the way I recommend 'reading' it. Gaffigan reads his own audiobooks which makes them even more enjoyable than if you were just reading the words.
