I would actually give this 2 volume set a 3.5, but I cannot do so. Fortune's Fool I would give a 3 and The Snow Queen a 4. Lackey creates great characters and playfully mixes fairy tales with real cultural details. It has led me searching more about things on various musical instruments, folk tale beings, and cultures like the Sami people.

Not all the maps I get asked to do are full colour multi-page affairs. Pantheon Press contacted me back in the spring to ask for some black and white maps for their tarot card based game system - Fortune's Fool. These maps were for their Grimm Tales adventure - I'm sure you'll recognise a lot of the references:. There's a special challenge to maps like these.
