Summary and reviews of Shadow of Power by Steve Martini

Some Ephesians in Acts 19 believed that healing power was concentrated in articles of Paul's clothing (cf. Matthew 9:21). Some people today put their trust in handkerchiefs that have been "prayed over," in relics of the saints, or in holy water. In Acts 3 God's power was demonstrated through Peter and John when a lame man was healed.

What was in the shadow of Peter that healed people (Acts 5 ...

This is Acts Study #13 - Acts 5:12-16 The Shadow of Peter. One concern of the church has always been to what extent there was to be a continuation of apostolic ministry. The truth is that while healings and miracles of all sorts will always be with us, there are certain works of power that were exclusive to the apostles.

#13 (Acts 5:12-16) The Shadow of Peter

Where is the demonstration of God's power I read about in the Scriptures? I long to see the prophetic edge of Elijah's mantle, the pastoral impact of Peter's shadow and the priestly work of Paul's apron. After all these years my heart still aches for the demonstration of the Spirit of God, just as it did on the eve of my ministerial call.

So afterwards the "hand, kerchiefs and aprons" from St. Paul's skin do what the shadow of St. Peter does here . In the use of oil, as in Mark 6:13, James 5:14, we find a medium employed which had in itself a healing power, with which the prayer of faith was to co-operate. On the "beds and couches," see Note on Mark 2:4.

Acts 5:15 As a result, people brought the sick into the ...

Review: Shadow of Power, Steve Martini's ninth legal thriller featuring San Diego criminal defense attorney Paul Madriani, is so meticulously researched and well written that it is virtually impossible to discern where fiction ends and fact begins. Shadow of Power by Steve Martini, a Mysterious Review.

Shadow of Power is part mystery & part legal drama. A controversial author is brutally murdered & it is believed to be racially motivated. But is it? Naturally, the police seize the suspect of convenience. I have read two other Paul Madriani thrillers & this one lacked the excitement & seemed to be much less of a thriller.
